PISTOL AND POISON A FROSTY RECEPTION

Used Successfully by a Dyersburg Merchant.

He Had Been in Ill Health—A Philadelphia Theatre Gunned by Fire.

SUICIDE IN BOYLE COUNTY.

Dyersburg, Tenn., Oct. 28.—James Swearingen, a well-known man, killed himself here last evening.

For many months past Mr. Swearingen had been in failing health and strength and overtaxed with the manifold burdens and cares of his business, yet he took no relaxation from work and it is said that he finally became mentally unbalanced and resorted to suicide for relief from the pressure of his work. Yesterday he bought a two-ounce bottle of laudanum and got his pistol from one of his employees.

He left the office of the oil mills about 5 o'clock, going back in the rear of the house, to the seed mills, and had been gone only a minute or two when David Moss, his chief clerk, and other employees heard the report of a pistol in the direction of Mr. Swearingen's house, and immediately rushed out into the seed room, where they found Mr. Swearingen lying on a pile of cotton seed with a bullet hole in his left breast, a smoking revolver in his right hand and an empty two-ounce bottle of laudanum at his side.

When asked why he did the deed he stated that he had done it to get relief from work and worry. He stated also that while he remembered to have gotten the pistol and to have bought the laudanum, he recollected nothing about having taken the laudanum or about firing the pistol.

Mr. Swearingen died painlessly at 6:45 o'clock. He leaves a wife and three little children.

THEATRE BURNED.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 28.—The Grand Avenue Theatre here was gutted by fire last night.

SUICIDE IN BOYLE.

Perryville, Ky., Oct. 28.—Robert Hawkins, a well-to-do young farmer of Boyle county, committed suicide at his home near this place last night.

Quinby, of Dayton, was elected representative to the supreme lodge to succeed Stanley Adams, of Louisville. The other supreme representative from this state is T. B. Matthews, of Petersburg, who holds over until next year. Joseph Covington, of Bowling Green, was elected grand chancellor, to succeed Jonett Henry, of Hopkinsville. The chair is occupied but a single year by each individual and Covington is advanced from vice grand chancellor to the head of the order in the state.

WELL KNOWN ATHLETE

JACK RUSH IN THE CITY VISITING FRIENDS TODAY.

Jack Rush, formerly sparring partner of Kid McCoy, the famous pugilist, is in the city on a brief visit, and is a guest of Dr. O. E. Whitesides, an old friend. Mr. Rush came from Columbus, Ind., Dr. Whitesides old home and is now on the road for the Excelsior Tannery of Louisville. He will probably be in the city for several days. He is one of the best known athletes in the country, and is making many friends during his stay in Paducah.

Attorney William Marble went to Princeton today at noon on business.

Fire Department Called Out to Get a Crowd for the Gov.

Speeches Made to Small Crowd and There Was No Enthusiasm Whatever.

A REGULAR FIASCO.

Governor Beckham today made his first speech of the campaign in Paducah. It is very probable he will never want to make one here again. It was about the heaviest frost on record in these parts. It withered all the vegetation for blocks around, including that on the speakers stand with the governor.

The governor arrived early this morning. He was met at the train by three hacks, a band of six or eight pieces, and a few local Democrats. It became evident very soon that there would be no crowd at Second and Broadway to attend the speaking, and the politicians put their heads together and evolved the ingenious scheme of turning in a fire alarm. They were aware of the alacrity with which all classes run when there is the slightest hint of a fire, and they detailed a trusted minion to go around to Central station to put the firemen next to the stunt that was required of them.

Shortly after 8 o'clock an alarm of fire was turned in, but the big bell at Central Station wouldn't ring. It went on a strike, but not the kind they wanted. The department was all ready, the boys with their clothes brushed up and the horses with an unusually good heat of steam on. Out they went, Chief Wood leading the procession.

Down on the river front there was also something doing. Wharfmaster S. A. Fowler got busy and passed the word around to all the boats in the harbor to tout their whistles. Those that had any steam to spare did so. One enthusiastic city official who tried to blow the whistle on his concern found that he didn't have any steam up, so he abandoned it in disgust.

Meanwhile Wharfmaster Fowler had set fire to a small goods box and that is the conflagration that was given as an excuse for the alarm to be turned in. As the department cleared Broadway in a magnificent run the people rushed down in its wake to the levee. They pushed and shoved for a time, and the whistling of boats made them think something was a-fire. They soon caught on to what it was done for, however, and slowly wended their way back up the street, saying it was only another Democratic graft.

There were not 50 people around the stand on the north side of the market where the governor was to speak, before the fire alarm, but after the fire department came Governor Beckham and Congressman Ollie James, and a few other dignitaries in carriages. The crowd on its way back from the river front halted and some stopped and some went on in disgust at the ruse that had to be adopted to get the people to turn out.

Until the speaking began the crowd spent its time wondering which one of the gentlemen on the platform was the governor. With him were quite a number of local politicians, and several star fiction writers of the Louisville press who no doubt telegraphed to their papers that Governor Beckham had a large and enthusiastic crowd of several thousand people at Paducah, when as a matter of fact there were never 300 people listening to the speaking at any one time, according to the best estimates. Many people left the speaking before it was out.

The officeholders and candidates stuck pretty well, however, and did not desert the distinguished speakers. The greater part of the crowd, Democrats, and all, were intensely amused at the method adopted by the local committee to raise a crowd, and made no bones of the evident fact that the whole thing was a frost for the governor and Congressman Ollie James.

Former Congressman Charles K. Wheeler, one of Colonel Hendrick's political enemies, was selected to introduce Governor Beckham in Colonel Hendrick's hometown. This was a happy way of the local managers of showing their sympathy for Colonel Hendrick by having his worst local enemy introduce the man who skinned him out of the nomination for governor. Former Congressman Wheeler presented the governor in one of his characteristic speeches.

Gov. Beckham's speech was about like other ordinary Democratic speeches. He did not touch on the Sam Clark pardon case, but did say that all Democrats should vote the straight ticket, thus slapping at the local independent move, and several Democrats who are running on the independent ticket. It is said the Governor was asked in advance not to touch on these things, but for some reason he failed to follow the advice given, and as a result offended many good Democrats who are not going to vote the straight ticket and do not like what they call unwarranted interference in local affairs.

After the governor Senator-elect McCreery spoke briefly, and the speaking was over. One peculiar thing about it was the absence of enthusiasm. Only a few times was there even a feeble effort to applaud. Then most of the applause was from the men on the platform.

ARRESTED AND RELEASED.—Will Hall, colored, was arrested today on suspicion of being a fugitive criminal but later released on his own recognizance.

Mrs. Sue Dunnington, of Columbia, Tenn., will arrive this evening to visit her niece, Mrs. Ellen Morrow.

BROKE INTO CHURCH

Thieves Enter the First Christian Church.

Books Scattered About But Nothing Missed Thus Far.

A thief or thieves broke into the First Christian church, Seventh and Jefferson streets, last night, but nothing is missing except perhaps some books from the study of the pastor, Rev. W. H. Pinkerton. Mr. Pinkerton is out of the city, and it could not be ascertained whether any of the books were gone or not. Books and papers were scattered all over the floor of the study, however.

Entrance was effected by breaking open a door on the Seventh street side of the church, and the door to Mr. Pinkerton's study was also broken open. The sexton discovered the doors open and the locks broken when he came to the church to clean it this morning. There is no clue to the burglars.

THURMAN'S SLAYER

Geo. Redmond Convicted and Gets 14 Years.

The Trial Ended Today at Alton and Mr. Ed Thurman Was There As a Witness.

VICTIM A PADUCAH BOY

News of the conviction of George Redmond at Alton, Ill., for the murder of Will Thurman, of Paducah, at Alton about three or four months ago, was received here this morning by Mrs. E. D. Thurman, sister-in-law of the murdered man.

Mr. E. D. Thurman had been at Alton attending the trial and sent a message this morning to his wife saying that the case had been finished and that the defendant had been convicted and sentenced to fourteen years in the penitentiary.

The facts of the murder are well known to the public. Thurman in company with Redmond and several companions had been together and the next morning Thurman was found unconscious from being sandbagged in one of the parks. He never became conscious and the wounds proved fatal.

Redmond was soon afterwards arrested on suspicion and released, and subsequently rearrested, additional evidence having been discovered against him.

His victim, Will Thurman, was a tinner, well known here, and worked here for many years. He was a member of company K of Paducah during the Spanish-American war.

CAIRO STIRRED.

BY THE RECOMMENDATION TO MOVE ITS CEMETERY.

Cairo, Ill., Oct. 28.—The recommendation of General O. H. Burton, inspector general of the United States army, that the national cemetery six miles from this city be abandoned on account of its being subject to overflow by water created a sensation. The cemetery has been established for years and is one of the most beautiful spots in this end of the state. It contains the graves of 6,000 soldiers, known and unknown, and in the center is a very fine monument, erected by the state of Illinois. The cemetery is situated on low ground and is surrounded by a levee, and in flood season the water accumulates, as there is no way to draw it. The proposition of removing the graves to other cemeteries will be resisted by the people here.

FUNERAL OF JUDGE ROBERTS.

Cairo, Ill., Oct. 28.—The funeral of Judge Joseph P. Roberts of this city, judge of the circuit court, occurred at Carbondale yesterday afternoon, and was attended by the entire bar of Southern Illinois. The funeral was conducted by the Masonic lodge of Carbondale. Judge Moore, O. O. Crawford officiated at the grave. Rev. Edward McCommon preached the funeral sermon in the Methodist church. Judge Roberts died in San Diego, Cal., where he went seeking health.

NEWS OF THE STATE

An Aged Couple Robbed and Then Poisoned.

Shelbyville Schools Closed on Account of Diphtheria—Danville Boy Out.

HAPPENINGS IN KENTUCKY

Perryville, Ky., Oct. 28—Burglars made a desperate attempt to take the life of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robinson, an aged couple living one mile east of here, and as a result Mrs. Robinson lies at the point of death and Mr. Robinson is dangerously ill.

During Sunday night robbers entered the home of the old couple, ransacked the house, and, after preparing a meal and eating to their heart's content, left, taking everything with them that they could conveniently carry away.

Monday morning Mrs. Robinson arose and prepared breakfast, but both she and her husband were unusually drowsy and felt as if they had been under the influence of some drug. Soon after they had eaten both became desperately ill. As they lived some distance from the nearest neighbor, they were unable to summon assistance, but they managed to get hold of a can of lard, and by eating a large amount of it, it is believed they saved their lives. Late yesterday afternoon a neighbor who called at the house found the couple unconscious and immediately summoned a physician, who administered medicine. He soon had Mr. Robinson on the road to recovery, but Mrs. Robinson did not yield so readily, to treatment, and it is feared she may not recover.

After administering to the wants of his patients, the physician began an investigation, and found a large amount of Paris green and corrosive sublimate in the coffee pot and the milk crock.

PYTHIANS IN SESSION.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 28—The opening session of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, began here with a big parade of all the visiting delegates.

After the business sessions of the grand lodge are completed a number of side trips will be given to the visiting delegates, including Georgetown and Paris, over the new interurban railway.

The association members came prepared to arouse interest in the approaching biennial, which is expected to bring 300,000 visitors to Kentucky next year, and there is no doubt that the members of the order throughout the state today have a better conception of the magnitude of the enterprise than they had before. Every lodge and uniform rank company in the commonwealth will assist in the entertainment of the visitors, and the hearty sympathy in the movement expressed by the delegates to the grand lodge meeting, indicates that every section of the state will be thoroughly represented at the coming event.

KILLED IN GEORGIA.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 28—A telegram has just been received here by President Jenkins of the Kentucky university, announcing the fact that Captain John P. May, one of the ex-saltators of the university and a well known real estate man, had been killed in Menlo, Ga. No details were given in the message.

Captain May was very prominent in business circles here, being a man of considerable means. He left Lexington Friday for the south, and had not been heard from until the message announcing his death arrived.

His mother and three children, who live at Shawhorn, in Bourbon county, survive him. Captain May had been married twice. His first wife was a Miss Shawhorn, of Paris, and his second Mrs. Caldwell of Bourbon. Both are dead.

His body is on the way to this city.

The attorneys for Hunter submitted argument tending to show that the court of appeals had jurisdiction in the matter before Judge Faulkner had finally passed on the motion. The attorney for Mr. Edwards argued to the contrary. Judge W. S. Pryor made the principal argument for the Hunter side yesterday.

BOY BADLY OUT.

Danville, Ky., Oct. 28—Another deplorable affair occurred between two playmates in this city while on their way to school. Kyle Terhune, youngest son of Taylor Terhune, the coal dealer, and Field Hughes, the ten year old son of Mack Hughes, had a difficulty over a trivial affair when young Hughes pulled a small knife from his pocket and cut Terhune a deep gash across the left hip. The wounded boy was taken home, but almost died before the arrival of a physician. The affair is deplored on account of the extreme youth of the participants.

WHIPPED TO DEATH.

Sergeant, Ky., Oct. 28—John Hodge is in jail at Whitesburg, charged with whipping his six year old son to death with a club on Pigeon Fork creek. The whipping was administered in the presence of the boy's mother, but she was unable to prevent the father from administering the blows.

As soon as the crime became known a mob was formed and for a time it seemed as if Hodge would be lynched. He managed, however, to get away and went to Whitesburg, where he gave himself up to the officials, who placed him in jail.

SURE INDICATIONS OF BAD BLOOD

OLD SORES ULCERS ABSCESSSES

There is no better evidence of a bad condition of the blood and unhealthy state of the system than a sore that won't heal, or a festering, discharging Ulcer or Abscess. There are many ways by which the blood may become contaminated and poisoned. A long spell of malarial fever or other debilitating sickness, the excessive use of mercury in certain diseases, inactive kidneys and torpid liver, exposure and lack of nourishing food, weaken the constitution and cause the system to become congested with impurities which are taken up by the blood, and wherever the flesh is bruised or scratched a festering sore or discharging ulcer begins. A boil or blister, pimple or burn often develops into a frightful looking sore because the blood is purged and purified and the system thoroughly cleansed of all morbid and unhealthy accumulations. This cannot be done with washes, salves and soaps, which only afford temporary relief.

Such things neither make the blood any purer nor the system any cleaner, and to depend upon them alone is suicidal and senseless. The sore or ulcer is only a symptom, an outlet for the poisons circulating in the blood, and as long as it remains impure the sore will never heal. It may scab over and appear to be getting well, but a fresh outpour of matter from the diseased blood starts it again, and thus it goes on, sometimes for years, slowly sapping away the life of the patient.

The only way to get rid of these disgusting evidences of impure blood is to remove the cause by purifying the polluted blood, and nothing does this so surely and effectively as S. S. S. It drives out of the circulation impurities and germs of every kind; and under the tonic effect of this great remedy the general health rapidly recuperates and broken-down constitutions are built up and strength and vigor are restored to all parts of the system. When S. S. S. gets into the circulation, impurities that have been clogging the blood and causing the old sore or ulcer, are driven out through the natural channels of the body, and the place begins to heal, the discharge gradually ceases, new flesh forms and smooth, healthy skin hides all signs of the painful, sickening sore.

SSS

S. S. S. is an entirely vegetable remedy, containing both purifying and tonic properties, making it the ideal medicine where the blood is out of order and the health undermined by some previous ailment resulting in chronic sores, ulcers, boils or abscesses.

A sore that does not heal promptly, no matter how small, will bear watching. It is a sure indication of bad blood, and may develop into something far more serious than a common ulcer. It may be Cancer. Through our medical department we are rendering valuable help to those afflicted with sores and ulcers of various kinds. Write us, and our physicians will advise you without charge.

YUKON COLD.

ENDANGERS A RICH CARGO OF GOLD.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 28—A special from Dawson says that steamers and cargoes valued at more than $2,000,000 remain exposed to the perils of the Yukon ice and frost, with little prospect of being got to places of safety for the winter. Some steamers have full cargoes of perishable provisions, and these are certain to be ruined. The steamers Columbian, Victorian, Zealandian and Bailey are stuck on the bar 100 miles above Dawson, and the big packet, Will H. Ison, built at a cost of $200,000, is caught on the bar at the mouth of the Yukon. All are in danger of being crushed by the ice.

Rescued from Death.

A year ago I suffered with flooding spells which threatened to end my life. I was given up by several doctors when my notice was called to your Wine of Cardui. I felt that it was only a waste of time and money to try it but to please my aunt I did so. It was really wonderful how soon I was benefited and felt myself growing better and stronger. I found the medicine pleasant to take and each month the flow was less until in seven months I was perfectly natural and suffered no pains. You cannot wonder that I am enthusiastic in the praise of your medicine when you know all that it has done for me.

SECRETARY, COSMOPOLITAN CLUB.

WINE of CARDUI

Mrs. Allen made a conservative statement when she wrote that flooding spells threatened to end her life. Every woman should know that flooding if not checked is sure death. It is nothing more nor less than the escaping of the life blood from the body—bleeding to death. Consumption is not so terrible as this awful calamity when it has gotten beyond control.

When the doctors had given up Mrs. Allen and when she had no hope, Wine of Cardui checked the terrible waste and saved her life. Besides saving her life Wine of Cardui brought her back to perfect health.

Could there be a more complete and conclusive demonstration than this of what Wine of Cardui can do? If Wine of Cardui cured those terrible chronic spells for Mrs. Allen, would it not do the same for you? Menstrual irregularities, bearing down pains, ovarian troubles, suppression, nervousness and headaches and backaches are only less dangerous symptoms of female weakness and Wine of Cardui cures them all—destroys the last trace and brings perfect health.

You need not have the greatest faith in Wine of Cardui. Mrs. Allen didn't. Just give it a trial and let Wine of Cardui cure you just as it did Mrs. Allen. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.

THE SHEPHERD AND THE YOUNG WOLF.

Find Shepherd's Companion.

A Shepherd found the young Cub of a Wolf, and caused it to be brought up among his Dogs, with whom it grew to be quite friendly. When any other Wolves came, meaning to rob the fold, this young fellow was among the foremost to give them chase, but on returning he generally managed to linger behind the Dogs and keep a sharp lookout for any stray sheep from the fold. Instead, however, of bringing these home he would drive them to an out-of-way spot and there mangle and partially devour them. He did this once too often, and was caught at it by the Shepherd, who quickly set him hanging by the neck from the bough of a tree, and in that way put an end to his double-dealing.

HORRIBLE PEOPLE

WATCHED THE RAPIDLY DESCENDING PARACHUTE—HELD ONLY A DUMMY.

Hundreds of people at Murphysboro, Ill., experienced a dreadful two minutes' suspense last night while watching the balloon ascension at the street fair.

The balloon had reached a great altitude when the parachute was cut loose and took the usual long dive before opening. The spectators held their breath as they watched the parachute fall and then it dawned upon them that the thing was not working as it should.

Downward it continued in its swift flight and finally shot below the line of trees and house-tops. Several citizens who were near the spot where the parachute hit the ground hurried to it to assist the unfortunate balloonist if there was any life left in his mangled body.

He was resting face downward on the ground, motionless. One of the men took hold of one of the fellow's feet and it came off, shoe and all. The man that had taken one of the arms found it limp as a rag and the bunch of kindly citizens turned sick. One of them grabbed the poor man around the waist and was somewhat surprised to find that he did not weigh more than 60 pounds or so, and took a look at his face. There was no face there.

It was a dummy, a rag man. And the kind citizens took a sneak into the thickening gloom.

The machinery that cuts loose the parachute had worked all right, but the parachute had just failed to open as it had been doing.

Republican Chances for Success in Kentucky Good.

Hon. Godfrey Hunter Explodes Claim That the Family Trouble in the 11th Will Interfere.

REPUBLICANS ALL PLEASED.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 28.—The Republican majority in Kentucky this year will exceed 10,000, and in all probability will reach 15,000.

"The Republicans will carry the Eleventh Congressional District by from 23,000 to 25,000, the latter figure will doubtless be realized.

"The Republican party will be victorious in Louisville and Jefferson county and you may safely place their majority at 5,000.

"I know that the Democratic leaders are preparing plans for a most gigantic steal, but this will be checkmated by a tremendous 'silent' vote throughout the State, that will be cast for the Republican ticket this year."

These and equally as other positive statements were uttered by Hon. W. Godfrey Hunter in the lobby of the Capital Hotel, where he was with a large number of friends discussing the political situation and the chances of Republican success.

"To begin with," said Dr. Hunter, "the Democratic leaders are hoping against hope that our little 'family affair' in the Eleventh district will cause a split in the Republican party, resulting in a greatly decreased majority in that section for the State ticket.

"I am prepared to state that these hopes will never be realized, as both my friends and Mr. Edwards' friends will not for a moment countenance any movement that will in any manner be detrimental to the State ticket.

"No matter how the courts decide this contest, I for one, and I believe also Mr. Edwards, will be found exerting our every effort to bring about not only a harmonious settlement of the difference, but to see that every Republican voter in the district registers his vote on November 3.

"The state will as surely go Republican as we are standing here, by from 10,000 to 15,000. This is no wild statement, but is my honest opinion after a careful study of the situation.

"I can safely state, without the least exaggeration, that the Republican majority in the Eleventh district will not be less than 23,000, and I confidently expect to see it reach 25,000.

"It is useless to deny the fact, that the Democratic leaders are planning a most gigantic steal in Louisville and Jefferson county, but the Republicans are on their guard and determined that every vote shall be counted as cast. Some of the best citizens of Louisville have volunteered their services as election officers, and Democrats who have been relying upon their ability to bribe election boards will find themselves confronted by a serious proposition.

"There will be a tremendous silent vote cast this election which of itself is a harbinger of Republican success, as this vote in its entirety will be cast for the Republican nominee.

"I am very well pleased with the situation," continued Dr. Hunter, "and if you live you will see my prediction verified."

SWITCH ENGINES

ARE CANDIDATES FOR THE RAILROAD JUNK SHOPS.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Switch engines are candidates for the junk shop. Car switching has been taken from them by "shunting humps" or gravity switches, and the work of breaking up or putting together a train is now done in a new way.

A hill or graded incline track twelve feet high and 1,000 feet long is all that has been needed to revolutionize train switching.

In the Burlington yard at Hawthorne one of these "humps" has been thrown up. At the west foot of the hill is a moon of tracks for west bound trains. Solid trains are pushed up the east approach of the incline, and when the cars are at the top of the hill they are cut off, one or two at a time, as the case may be, and allowed to run down the west side of the hill upon different tracks, upon which are being made up the trains of which they are to form a part.

The Pavana will get in today from Tennessee river.

A STRONG STATEMENT

FROM A PROMINENT LAWYER OF MEXICO, MO., ENDORSING

FOERG'S REMEDY

The Great Blood Purifier.

CAPT. C. T. ALLEN, Mexico, Mo. Lawyer, Soldier, Legislator, Lecturer.

Mexico, Mo., Aug. 25, 1903.
I knew Philip Foerg, of Princeton, Ky., for thirty years. He was my neighbor and friend. I knew that he originated and, after many years of persistent effort, perfected "Foerg's Remedy." So highly did I appreciate it as a perfect and complete remedy for all kinds and degrees of blood impurities that I endeavored, twenty years or more ago, to organize a joint-stock company to place this wonderful remedy on the world's market. Mr. Foerg very properly declined to surrender the formula for making the remedy unless a sufficient amount of paid-up stock was raised, etc., and this I failed to do. Then Mr. Foerg himself, in a limited way, made and sold it for twenty years before his death. By his will he left the formula for making this remedy to Mr. Hugh Mayes, of Princeton, Ky., now Secretary and Treasurer of "The Foerg Remedy Company," Evansville, Ind. I know it to be a fact that Mr. Foerg for twenty years offered $1,000 spot cash (he was amply able to make such an offer) for any case based on blood impurity which his remedy would not cure, and I know that he was often challenged to the contest, and he never lost a case.

C. T. ALLEN.

Feel cool shiverings, aching in the bones, lack of energy, headache and great depression? These symptoms may be followed by violent headache, high fever, extreme nervousness, a condition known as malaria. Herbine cures it. Take it before the disease gets a fair hold, though it will work a cure in any stage. J. A. Hopkins, Manchester, Kan., writes: "I have used your great medicine, Herbine, for several years. There is nothing better for malaria, chills and fever, headache, biliousness and for a blood purifying tonic, there is nothing as good." 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

DADDY RYAN

WELL KNOWN KENTUCKIAN CELEBRATES HIS BIRTHDAY.

This is the 75th anniversary of the birth of "Daddy" William Ryan of Louisville, probably the best known Mason, Elk and Pythian in Kentucky. He was the recipient of hearty congratulations from large numbers of admirers in and out of the fraternities. He is in fine physical condition and shows signs of being able to celebrate several returns of the day.

"Daddy" Ryan was born in Geneva, N. Y., October 28, 1828. He came to Louisville in 1864. It is as a Mason that he is most widely known, though he is prominent in the other fraternities. He is grand marshal of the Grand Lodge of Masons and has held many high offices in the gift of the craft. He is well known in Paducah, especially among members of fraternal orders.

Saved

From Death After Four Years

Of Nervous Prostration and Debility.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cured Me Permanently.

Nervous prostration is the most serious of nervous disorders. It arises from some extra strain, which robs the nerves of strength, vitality and life. The patient speedily loses self control, is subject to frightful headaches, faints, fits, melancholia and morbid tendencies. Too weak to drag the thin, wasted body around; unable to get sleep or rest, life seems scarcely worth the living; the mind frequently broods until it becomes unbalanced and insanity often results. Read what Dr. Miles' Nervine did for Mrs. Grabbill:

"I was terribly afflicted with nervous trouble for nearly four years. I was so bad at times that I could not help myself, nor carry a chair across the room without giving out. One physician attended me for a year and a half without giving me any help whatever and I also doctored with two others without any good results. My father and others wished me to try Dr. Miles' Nervine which, after lots of coaxing I did. I took six bottles of the Nervine and some of the Nerve and Liver Pills. I was completely cured of my trouble and I heartily recommend it to any woman who is suffering from a nervous disorder. I have used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for headache and neuralgia with best results. I believe firmly in the efficacy of the Nerve and Liver Pills and am fully convinced that Dr. Miles' Remedies saved my life."—MRS. HATTIE GRABILL, Roanoke, Va.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Character is a unity, and all the virtues must advance together to make the perfect man.—Drummond.

THE WEATHER.

Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday. Rain and warmer Thursday.

ONLY A FROST.

Nothing could more plainly show the sentiment in this section towards Governor Beckham than the lack of enthusiasm and the smallness of the crowd, when he spoke here this morning. Democratic managers, in their desperation, had a fire alarm turned in, and it is said that even the big bell at Central station refused to become sufficiently thawed out to ring. At any rate the bell didn't ring but the department split Broadway and drew the usual crowd in its wake. Had it not been for this happy idea of the local Democrats, the governor of the state would have addressed a mere handful of people in Paducah.

The fact is, Democrats in this section of the state decline to get enthusiastic over Governor Beckham. He is governor of the state, and the Democrats, as he is their nominee for governor and came here to speak to them, should have turned out to hear him. They did not. There was comparatively a mere handful. A street full could have attracted almost as many. Out of the 2800 Democrats registered in Paducah only a hundred or two were on hand. In the small crowd that surrounded the stand were many Republicans and others attracted only by curiosity, but there was almost a total absence of enthusiasm. The governor was greeted by one or two feeble yelps as he arose to speak and this was the end of it. The Democrats looked ashamed and crestfallen, and the Republicans felt ashamed for them. There is only one solution to this "frost" accorded the governor of Kentucky in Paducah. It is that the people are not with him. They do not approve of his administration, and they will not vote for him. They have not forgotten what the Democratic state machine did to Hon. John K. Hendrick, a candidate for the Democratic nomination, they have not forgotten the asylum scandals, the war fund graft, the pardon and parole outrages, and how the soldier boys were robbed of about $18,000 to enrich Captain Calhoun. One citizen when this morning asked why he didn't get up a little enthusiasm over his governor replied: "I don't suppose I can be expected to have a fit over him. His crowd robbed my boy who was a soldier, out of about $40."

The thing that was made plain by Governor Beckham's visit to Paducah, however, was that the people do not want him, and that they will vote for Colonel Belknap. It is with the best people in the state, "Belknap and Business" in preference to "Beckham and Boodle." If it is as bad in other parts of the state as here, Governor Beckham will be overwhelmingly defeated.

INTIMIDATION EXPOSED.

The dismissal of the case against a colored voter alleged to have registered illegally in police court this morning, exposes the game of intimidation attempted by the Yeiser crowd. Although they have been claiming that from 300 to 300 Republican voters were illegally registered, they made only one arrest to back up such assertions, and the only person thus arrested was the one dismissed today, there being no evidence against him. There is no truth in the claim that Republican voters have registered illegally. If the Yeiser gang knew of any they would have arrested them all, if there were a thousand. The whole thing in a nutshell is that they have undertaken a gigantic bluff game to keep Republican voters from the polls. Not content with claiming that 300 colored voters were registered illegally, and sending notices out to people indiscriminately, they handcuffed the man dismissed this morning and took him out to the pay car several days ago so other colored men could see him and become afraid. The gang thought that this might intimidate others. The excuse for handcuffing him was probably that they were afraid the prisoner would get away, but a man charged with murder was a few days ago allowed to walk through the streets in front of an officer without a sign of handcuffs, while a negro charged with illegal registration is handcuffed and taken out on parade, apparently only so others could see him and was kept in jail over a week before he was finally dismissed this morning. These cases of attempted intimidation will be brought before federal grand jury next month, and some of those who are likely to regret their present activity will be the police officers who instead of earning their salaries are lending themselves to the scheme.

GOV. BECKHAM'S BLUNDER.

It is estimated that Governor Beckham lost several hundred votes in Paducah today. According to the statement of reliable Democrats, he was cautioned against alluding in any way directly or indirectly, to local issues. In his speech, however, he urged Democrats to vote the straight Democratic ticket. To stamp under the device and let it go at that. He said that was sufficient for any good Democrat.

In doing this he has offended three distinct elements in Paducah. One is the independents, most of whom are Democrats. They sent word to him to "hands off" local issues, and yet the governor got up and told Democrats to vote the straight ticket, which means not to vote the independent ticket. Another class offended are the friends of Attorney L. K. Taylor who is running as an independent candidate against the Democratic nominee, for commonwealth's attorney, and Mr. J. Henry Smith, who is running as an independent for city treasurer against the Democratic nominee. The friends of all of these three factions are very indignant and say they will not only vote to suit themselves, but that they will certainly vote against Governor Beckham for interfering in something that concerns only them. They seem to blame a certain coterie of local Democratic politicians, who have been trying to run things to suit themselves, and who probably induced the governor to give the classes referred to above the dig he did. What he said lost him several hundred votes in this hot-bed of Democracy.

Republican election officers should next week be on the alert at every poll. Seeing that they are beaten the Yeiser clique will do everything in its power to get the offices. Every Republican election officer is cautioned not to allow the Democratic officers to impose on him. The Democratic officers have heretofore been in the habit of saying what is the law and running things to suit themselves at the polls, but they have no right to do it and will not be allowed to do it this time. If any of the Republican election officers are not on hand when the polls open it is the privilege of the Republicans present to select the other officer. The Democrats have been in the habit of doing this. All Republican voters are urged to go to the polls early and vote.

The Republican ticket in Paducah is gaining strength every day. The people know what it is, and it does not have to send to the cities for reform cranks and oratorical curiosities to come here and speak for it. It speaks for itself. It is made up of good men, and the platform on which these gentlemen are making their race is well known and shows what they stand for. The action of both the Democratic crowd and the independents, show that they are both frightened to death, and are using desperate means to prevent the defeat that becomes more certain every day.

County Judge Webb has fined two prominent county officials for hitching their steeds to the courthouse fence. He proposes to keep the good work going and if there is not enough chain around the fence, you had better take your horse to a stable.—Mayfield Messenger.

The above indicates undoubtedly metropolitan tendencies on part of our neighbor. May the good work go on.

The Democrats had the fire department, and a few of the political fossils, has-beens and hopefuls of the community, out on parade this morning, and would probably have had the police force out had not the officers been busy looking for colored voters to intimidate.

TO THE VOTERS OF PADUCAH.

I have been selected by the Republican party as its nominee for councilman from the Third ward and realizing the great responsibilities of the office want to tell you what I shall do if called to it.

I am for honesty first, and progress next. I shall vote to clean the city of filth, and to have the work done by our own workmen; vote to enforce every law, and to do away with vice and disorder; vote to give men power who are not afraid to enforce the laws; for men who will turn the wheels of progress; for men who are not tied to any men or set of men; vote to lift our city out of the mire of filth and corruption; to make of it one of which we can all be proud—one to which travelers will point as a progressive, clean, up-to-date town, and not refer to it as the case now.

This is my platform, and I solicit the vote of every voter regardless of party—of every man who wants a good, clean, progressive, honest administration. Yours very truly,
WM. SHORT.

Attempted to Shoot President Diaz, of Mexico.

ARMENIAN LEADER MURDERED

ATTEMPTS TO SHOOT DIAZ.

Guatemala, Mexico, Oct. 28.—Great excitement was caused here yesterday by what looked like an attempt on the life of President Diaz, who was a guest of the state government during the festivities. The president, his staff and guests were passing by the Cantador garden in a street car, when a man of the lower class by the name of Elisa Toscano approached the car shouting, and fired five shots from a revolver at the car, fortunately doing no harm.

Pablo Escandon, of the president's staff, rushed out of the car and caught the man, wrenching the revolver from his grasp. The police took Toscano to prison. He is a man with a bad criminal record. One theory is that Toscano was drunk, and another that he deliberately planned to shoot the chief magistrate.

The president remained perfectly cool, and was acclaimed by the crowd of citizens showing their joy at his escape.

ATTEMPTED TO BLACKMAIL.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 28.—A sensational attempt has been made to blackmail Senator Hanna and Z. L. White, of Columbus. A warrant was issued for a Columbus woman named Mrs. Boswell and her arrest is expected today.

AN ARMENIAN MURDERED.

London, Oct. 27.—Sagouni, president of the Armenian Revolutionary society in London, was murdered in the suburbs of Nunhead. The crime has created a sensation as it has every appearance of being of a political character, and has been preceded by the assassination of other officials of branches of the same society on the continent.

Sagouni, who returned to London only yesterday, after settling up the affairs of an associate in Switzerland, who was recently assassinated by stabbing, was entering his residence when a man rushed across the road and fired four shots at him in quick succession, the last bullet entering the region of the heart. The murderer who appeared to be a foreigner, fled. The only clues to the man in possession of the authorities are a felt hat and a silver-plated revolver, which he dropped in his flight.

The murdered man, who was a mining engineer, became wealthy in the Caucasus, and devoted his money to the Armenian cause. His society was entirely passive and opposed to violence, and it is thought this attitude inspired the advanced section of the Armenians with the desire for vengeance, the latter claiming that Sagouni's society devoted funds to charity which would have been better applied to violent remedies for the Armenian grievances.

Sagouni is said to have moved to England from New York early in 1902.

BIG FIRE NEAR NEW YORK.

New York, N. Y., Oct. 28.—A fire in Kingsbridge, at the upper end of Manhattan Island, destroyed twenty houses, valued at $150,000.

STREET COMMITTEE.

WILL THIS AFTERNOON DECIDE ON THE KIND OF STONE TO USE.

The street committee is this afternoon meeting to decide on whether or not the city will permit Mr. E. C. Terrell, contractor for the new paved streets, to substitute soft limestone for hard limestone for pavements.

The contract stipulates that hard limestone shall be used and no other and Mr. Terrell claims that he cannot procure the hard stone. He asked the council to allow him to use the soft stone which he can get. It is understood that the committee, which was given power to act, will not agree to any change.

LANG BROS' SUCCESS

GREAT POPULARITY OF PLAN TO SELL MEDICINE AT HALF-PRICE AND GUARANTEE A CURE.

Lang Bros., the enterprising druggists, rather than await the ordinary methods of introduction, urged the Dr. Howard company to secure a quick sale for their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia by offering the regular 50c. bottle at half price.

The wonderful success of this plan was a great surprise even to Lang Bros., and today there are scores of people here in Paducah who are using and praising this remarkable remedy. So much talk has been caused by this offer, and so many new friends have been made for the specific, that the Dr. Howard Co. have authorized druggists Lang Bros. to continue this special half-price sale for a limited time longer.

In addition to selling a 50c. bottle of Dr. Howard's specific for 25c. Lang Bros. have so much faith in the remedy that they will refund the money to anyone whom it does not cure.

When your head aches your stomach does not digest food easily and naturally, when there is constipation, specks before the eyes, tired feelings, giddiness, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, heart-burn, sour stomach, roaring or ringing in the ears, melancholy, and liver troubles, Dr. Howard's specific will cure you. If it does not, it will not cost you a cent.

This latest achievement of science is of great value in curing sick headache. Thousands of women are today free from that painful disease solely through the use of this specific.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. McGee, of the county. The couple left immediately after the marriage for Woodville, where they will make their home.

BURGLARS ABOUT

SEVERAL ATTEMPTS TO ENTER PEOPLES' HOMES.

Several efforts have been made lately by thieves to break into various homes in Paducah and in several instances shots were fired to frighten them away.

A night or two ago a man was discovered in the act of getting through a window at the home of Mr. George Kolb, at Fifth and Clark streets, and Mr. Kolb shot at him several times. He escaped in the darkness and it could not be determined whether he was white or colored.

Night before last an attempt was made by thieves to break into the Nunamacher home, on South Fifth street, a short distance from Mr. Kolb's.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.

MEETING CALLED FOR TONIGHT IN LOUISVILLE.

The Republican State Central Committee has been called to meet in Louisville tonight at the request of Committeeman J. Sherman Cooper, Chairman of the Congressional Committee of the Eleventh district.

Mr. Cooper notified Chairman Barnett that he would like to ask, as a question of personal privilege, that a meeting of the committee be called in order that the body may define his powers in the Edwards-Hunter Congressional wrangle of the Eleventh district.

Mr. Barnett notified all of the members of the committee living out of the city by telegram that the meeting had been called for tonight. Mr. Bennett said that the committee would not enter into the merits of the controversy between Mr. Edwards and Dr. Hunter, but that it would merely pass upon the authority of Mr. Cooper as Chairman of the Congressional committee, to certify the nominee to the Secretary of State.

Mr. Cooper is a supporter of Mr. Edwards, and has already certified his nomination for Congress. The question to be decided by the State Central Committee tomorrow is whether or not Mr. Cooper is the governing authority in this instance.

GERMAN SYRUP.

We want to impress on our readers that Roschee's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market today that does relieve and cure consumption. It contains the specific, such as pure tar, extracts of gums, etc., which have been so highly endorsed for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night, and be free from the spasms of dry and racking cough in the morning. George Haynes, Colored, Was Drowned This Morning

Sent After Water and Fell Over in a Fit—Body Found Shortly Afterwards.

INQUEST THIS AFTERNOON

George Lee Haynes, a seventeen-year-old colored boy, was drowned in a small stream of water at the foot of South Fifth street this morning early about 9 o'clock, having, it is supposed, fallen into the stream while seized with an epileptic fit.

The boy was a stepson of Richard Cummings, a laborer at the Riglesher saw mill, and had gone down from his residence, 1313 South Fifth street, which is located just on the brink of a deep hollow, to secure a bucket of water with which to wash clothes. While preparing to scoop up the water from the small stream, which is no more than three feet across at the widest place, and not over a foot deep he fell forward in a fit, it is supposed, no one having really seen him and was drowned.

The body was found lying in the water face downward by a little negro girl shortly after the boy left for the water and she reported it to the boy's mother who in turn notified Coroner William Peal.

The unfortunate boy's body was pulled out on the bank and covered by a cloth until the coroner came to take charge. The boy had been subject to fits, according to the statements of his stepfather, for several years and had had as many as six in the last eight days. Yesterday afternoon he had his last before this morning.

Coroner Peal will hold an inquest this afternoon.

ADDRESSES PUPILS FRIDAY—Rev. Sykes, rector of Grace church, will address the High school pupils Friday morning at the Washington building on West Broadway.

COFFEE PARALYSIS

A WELL DEFINED CASE.

Coffee paralysis is not common but there are more cases than folks imagine and there are cases where the nervous victim keeps on with the coffee until the trouble is chronic and incurable.

On the other hand there are many cases where leaving off the coffee and drinking Postum Food Coffee in its place has resulted in complete and speedy cures as in the following:

"For several years I was in an alarming condition and had consulted every physician in our town besides three visiting specialists. My trouble baffled them all, but their different verdicts frightened me and the treatment proposed was long, tedious and very expensive. My husband had already spent a small fortune trying to help me and the last effort was a $20 experiment which did no good.

"My trouble was a numbness or half paralyzed sensation that would creep over me especially bad at night, commencing in my arms, shoulders and down to my left side and was followed by terrible pains and a prickly sensation that is beyond description. My hands would puff up and feel like great lumps, so thick and heavy and unnatural. I could do absolutely no work of any kind.

"It was then that my mother persuaded me that my condition was largely due to the use of coffee of which I was a great lover. She knew what leaving off coffee and using Postum had done in her own case and she finally persuaded me to make the same shift, which I did without much faith. To my everlasting surprise the change was wonderful for all my old complaints soon lessened and are now completely gone. The terrible feelings and sensations that I cannot describe have stopped completely and I feel as if new rich, red blood was flowing through my veins bringing me health and happiness.

"All of this I know is due to my having stopped coffee and used Postum. My husband and three sons all use Postum now and enjoy it greatly." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum makes red blood. Look in each package for a copy of the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

GRAVES COUNTY BOY

Details of How He Was Brutally Murdered.

Was Shot in Mississippi Three Times
by His Associates.

Oscar Wadlington, of Pilot Oak, Graves county, and whose family is quite well known in this section, was brutally murdered in Mississippi recently.

Friends have just received particulars, and the Mayfield Messenger says of the killing:

He left home about two months ago and went to some point in Mississippi where he became involved in a difficulty with three men. He had a pistol and $200 in gold and $300 in other money. The three men met him some time during the day that he was shot at night and took his pistol away from him, when he told them that unless they returned his pistol he would kill at least one of them.

They laid for him and as he went to his boarding house they met him and shot him thirteen times, killing him instantly. When his body was taken up all of his money was gone. His brothers went from Mayfield down there but his body had been buried and the physician told them that his body was in such condition as not to permit its removing.

He belonged to one of Graves best families. His father, Mr. Pat Wadlington, is still alive.

TOWN MARSHAL.

ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN KILLED BY HIS OWN DEPUTY.

Flushing, O., Oct. 28.—As a result of the autopsy made by the authorities since the shooting of Town Marshal George D. Elliott last Friday night it was today announced that John Wheeler, one of the five men deputized by the marshal to assist him in the raid on the camp of the negro desperadoes, is suspected of firing the fatal shot.

If the police theory be correct Elliott was led into a trap. It was Wheeler who gave the information that led to the determination to make the raid. The contents of the shell that killed the marshal came from the gun placed in the hands of Wheeler, and there are empty barrels as further evidence.

Charles Bethel, another member of the posse, became suspicious, and as soon as Elliott dropped to the ground he sprang at him and placed him under arrest.

GIRL MURDERED

MOTHER FINDS THE BODY IN UNDERGROUND ALLEY.

Albion, Pa., Oct. 28.—Mabel H. Bechtel, aged 21 years, was murdered and her body placed in an underground alley adjoining her home, where it was found today by her mother. Her skull was crushed but there were no other marks of violence on the body.

Miss Bechtel went driving yesterday morning with David Weisenberg, and this was the last time she was seen alive. Mrs. Bechtel was aroused early in the morning by the barking of dogs. Upon looking out of her bedroom window, she saw two men carrying an object from a carriage and place it in the underground alley near the Bechtel home. She made no investigation, but upon arising this morning she found her daughter's shoes, hat and coat in the dining room. Later the body of Miss Bechtel was found in the alley.

FATAL ENTERPRISE

PARIS NEWSPAPERS' SCHEME
CAUSES A RIOT.

Paris, Oct. 28.—An enterprise started by the Matin which consisted of concealing in the city a treasure, the whereabouts of which was indicated in a serial story running in the paper, caused trouble here today. A crowd was seeking the treasure in the Bois de Boulogne this morning when a man drove up in a cab, alighted and humbly found it. The crowd declared that the finder was employed by this paper and had been told where to look. They tried to lynch him and he was saved with difficulty. Subsequently eight hundred persons marched to the office of the Matin, where they made a bonfire of copies of the paper and threatened to wreck the premises. The police had a hard task in dispersing the mob.

ALICE of OLD VINCENNES

By MAURICE THOMPSON

Copyright, 1900, by the BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

Heim was in a half stooping attitude with a hand in his cap in the other. He had met Hamilton's glowering look with a peculiarly innocent smile, as if to say: "What in the world is the matter now? I never felt in a better humor in all my life. Can't you take a joke, I wonder?" He did not speak, however, for a rattling volley of musket and rifle shots hit the top of the clay daubed chimney, send down into the toddy a shower of soot and dirt.

In a wink every man was on his feet and starting.

"Gentlemen," said Heim, with an impressive oath, "that is Clark's soldiers, and they will take your fort, but they ought not to have spoiled this apple today."

"Oh, the devil!" said Hamilton, forcibly resuming a calm countenance. "It is only a squad of drunken Indians coming in. We'll forego excitement. There's no battle on hand, gentlemen."

"I'm glad you think so, Governor Hamilton," Heim responded, "but I should imagine that I ought to know the crack of a Kentucky rifle. I've heard one occasionally in my life. Besides, I got a whiff of freedom just now."

"Captain Heim is right," observed Farnsworth. "That is an attack."

Another volley, this time nearer and more concentrated, convinced Hamilton that he was indeed at the opening of a fight. Even while he was giving some hurried orders to his officers a man was wounded at one of the port-holes. They came a series of yells, answered by a ripple of sympathetic French shouting that ran throughout the town. The patrol guards came straggling in, breathless with excitement. They swore to having seen a thousand men marching across the water covered meadows.

Hamilton was brave. The approach of danger stirred him like a trumpet strain. His fighting blood rose to full tide, and he gave his orders with the steadiness and commanding force of a born soldier. The officers listened to their respective positions. On all sides sounds indicative of rapid preparations for the fight mingled into a confused strain of military energy. Men marched to their places, cannon were wheeled into position, and soon enough the firing began in good earnest.

Late in the afternoon a rumor of Clark's approach had gone abroad through the village, but not a French lip breathed it to a friend of the British. The creoles were loyal to the cause of freedom; moreover, they cordially hated Hamilton, and their hearts beat high at the prospect of a change in masters at the fort. Every cabin had its hidden gun and supply of ammunition despite the order to disarm issued by Hamilton. There was a hustling to bring these forth, which was accompanied with a guarded yet irrepressible chattering, delightfully French and infinitely volatile.

"Tiens, je vais froter mon fusil! J'ai vu un sang!" said Jacques Boncier to his daughter, the pretty Adrienne, who was coming out of the room in which Alice lay.

"I saw a monkey just now. I must run up my gun!" He could not be so solemn, not he. The thought of an opportunity to get even with Hamilton was like wine in his blood.

If you had seen those hardy and sinewy Frenchmen gliding in the dusk of evening from cottage to cottage passing the word that the Americans had arrived, saying airy things and pinching one another as they met and hurried on, you would have thought something very amusing and wholly found in proportion for the people of Vincennes.

There was a current belief in the town that Gaspard Houssillon never missed a good thing and always somehow got the lion's share. He went out with the club to return on the flood. Nobody was surprised, therefore, when he suddenly appeared in the midst of his friends, armed to the teeth and emotionally warlike to suit the occasion. Of course he took charge of everybody and everything. You could have heard him whisper a bow shot away.

"Tensions!" he hissed whenever he met an acquaintance. "We will surprise the fort and scalp the whole garrison. Aux armes! Les Americains viennent d'arriver!"

At his own house he knocked and called in vain. He shook the door violently, for he was thinking of the stores under the floor, of the grimy bottles, of the fragrant Bordeaux. Ah, his throat, how it throbbled! But where was Mme. Roussillon? Where was Alice? "Jean! Jean!" he cried, forgetting all precaution. "Come here, you scamp, and let me in this minute!"

A profoundly impressive silence gave him to understand that his home was deserted.

"Chiff! Frightened and gone to stay with Mme. Godere, I suppose, and I so thirsty! Bnh! Hum, hum! Apres le vin la bataille, Ziff!"

"Et moi aussi," he murmured, He the vast murmur of the sea, "I want to be in that dance! Pardonnez-moi, s'il vous plait, moi, je veux danser, s'il vous plait."

And when he had filled himself he plunged out and rushed away, wrought up to the extreme fighting pitch of temper. If he could but come across that Lieutenant Barlow, how he would smash him and mangle him! To magnify his prowess with the lens of imagination he swelled and puffed as he hurried along.

The firing sounded as if it were between the fort and the river, but presently when one of Hamilton's cannon spoke M. Roussillon saw the yellow spike of flame from his muzzle leap directly toward the church, and he thought it best to make a wide detour to avoid going between the firing lines. Once or twice he heard the whine of a stray bullet high overhead. Before he had gone very far he met a man hurrying toward the fort. It was Captain Francis Malsonville, one of Hamilton's chief scouts, who had been out on a reconnaissance and, cut off from his party by some of Clark's forces, was trying to make his way to the main gate of the stockade.

M. Roussillon knew Malsonville as a somewhat desperate character, a leader of Indian forays and a trader in human scalps. Surely the fellow was legitimate prey.

"Ziff! Diable de gredin!" he snarled, and leaping upon him choked him to the ground. "Je vais vous scalper immédiatement!"

Clark's plan of approach showed masterly strategy. Lieutenant Bailey, with fourteen regulars, made a show of attack on the east, while Major Bowman led a company through the town, on a line near where Main street in Vincennes is now located, to a point north of the stockade. Charleville, a brave creole, who was at the head of some daring fellows, by a brilliant dash got position under cover of a natural terrace at the edge of the prairie opposite the fort's southwestern angle. Lieutenant Beverley, in whom the commander placed highest confidence, was sent to look for a supply of ammunition and to gather up all the Frenchmen in the town who wished to join in the attack. Uncle Jason and ten other available men went with him.

They all made a great noise when they felt that the place was completely invested. Nor can we deny, much as we would like to, the strong desire for vengeance which raised those shouting voices and nerved those steady hearts to do or die in an undertaking which certainly had a desperate look. The thought was tremendously stimulating.

Beverley, with the aid of Uncle Jason, was able to lend his little company as far as the church before the enemy saw him. Here a volley from the nearest angle of the stockade had to be answered, and pretty soon a cannon began to play upon the position.

"We kin do better some's else," was Uncle Jason's laconic remark, flung back over his shoulder as he moved briskly away from the spot just swept by a 6 pounder. Come this yer way, lieutenant! I hyer some o' the fellers a-talkin' loud jes' beyant Legraee's place. They ain't no sort of sense a-tryin' to hit anything a-shootin' in the dark now."

When they reached the thick of the town there was a strange stir in the dusky streets. Men were slipping from house to house, arming themselves and joining their neighbors. Clark had sent an order earlier in the evening forbidding any street demonstration by the inhabitants, but he might as well have ordered the wind not to blow or the river to stand still. Uncle Jason knew every man whose outlines he could see or whose voice he heard. He called each one by name:

"Here, Roger, fall in! Come, Louis, Alphonse, Victor, Octave—venez ici, here's the American army, come with me!" His rapid French phrases leaped forth as if shot from a pistol, and his shrill voice, familiar to every ear in Vincennes, drew the creole militiamen to him, and soon Beverley's company had doubled its numbers, while at the same time its enthusiasm and ability to make a noise had increased in a far greater proportion. In accordance with an order from Clark they now took position near the northeast corner of the stockade and began firing, although in the darkness there was but little opportunity for marksmanship.

VERDICT FOR $2,200

Rendered Against Mr. E. Guthrie For Young Lady.

She Was Hurt By His Elevator—Democratic Officials Unable to Prove Registration Fraud.

OTHER NEWS OF THE COURTS

CIRCUIT COURT.

Miss Dounalee E. Carney, formerly a saleslady at E. Guthrie's store on Broadway, this morning got a judgment in court against her former employer for $2,200 for damages sustained in an elevator accident at the store more than a year ago.

Miss Carney was employed as a saleslady and while trying to signal the elevator boy to come down with the elevator was caught by the cage as it was coming down. She did not know that the cage was coming down and her head was caught, the scalp being badly lacerated and her back injured. She asked for $3,000 damages. The case will be appealed. The evidence was finished yesterday afternoon.

The jury in the case of R. G. Caldwell & Son against Gilbert & Arenz found for the defendant. The suit was brought to recover an alleged $110 due as rent.

At press time the case of J. H. Whitney against J. W. Mobley and others was on trial. The suit was brought to secure payment of an alleged note and also money alleged to be due for services.

O. W. S. Cocker, colored, made application for admittance to the local bar. He will be examined Saturday.

A. C. Lasher, of Smithland, applied for admittance to the bar and will also be examined Saturday.

POLICE COURT.

The case against Charles Gilbert, colored, charged with making false affidavit to register, was dismissed this morning in police court as there was no evidence against him. He was arrested about two weeks ago and had been in custody since. It seems he swore when required to make affidavit to register that his home was at a house on South Ninth street occupied by a family named Hale. The officers went there to ascertain if he boarded there, and the woman who answered their questions, fearing that they wanted to arrest her for running a boarding house without a license, said that he did not. Little trouble was taken, it seems, to learn whether or not the man had been staying there, which could probably have been found out from many people in the neighborhood. Instead he was kept in jail for a week or more. Gilbert has been running into Paducah for the past 18 months on the railroad, and is well known. This is the only arrest made for alleged illegal registration, despite the wholesale claims that several hundred are registered illegally in Paducah.

The case against Harrison Chambers, colored, charged with a breach of the peace was continued.

Pearl Dudley and Alberta Goldsmith, colored, were fined $20 and costs each for fighting.

Charles Morrison and George Edwards, colored, were fined $5 and costs each for fighting.

George Edwards, colored, was arraigned for stealing copper from the Kentucky Iron Co., and the case continued.

TRANSFERRED TO LOOKUP.

Dick Shelton, colored, who was fined $40 and costs and sentenced to 20 days in jail for carrying a pistol, served out his jail sentence today and was taken to the city hall to serve out his fine. He says he will replevy his fine.

COUNTY COURT.

Colonel Blanks, city, colored, age 24 to Angie Daniel, city, age 22. Second marriage of the groom and first of the bride.

George Koerner, Tyler, Ky., age 27 to Bluff X. Hart, Tyler, age 22. First marriage of both.

Theatrical Notes.

One of the most striking stage pictures in "In the Palace of the King," which Miss Helen Grant will present here shortly in the throne room where the strongest scene in the play occurs.

Madame Alice Phazo has been specially engaged by Charles H. Yale to illustrate and direct several new ballets that will be made special features in the twenty-second annual tour of the "Everlasting Devil's Auction." They will include among others, an European novelty and also a royal sextette of lady dancers direct from the Alhambra theater, London, England.

Devil's Auction will be at The Kentucky tonight.

At The Kentucky Saturday will be a special attraction labor in a new play whose scenes are laid near Wilkes Barre, Pa., entitled, "Slaves of the Mine." It is the joint work of Daniel L. Hart, author of "The Partish Priest," and C. E. Callahan, well known through his "Ceon Hollow," and "Foggy's Ferry." "Slaves of the Mine" will be produced with exclusively special scenery and a well selected company, together with the Eagle Quartette. Bargain matinee Saturday 25c to all.

A special cast under the direction of Mr. Fred Niblo will appear at The Kentucky Thursday night in George M. Cohan's "cyclone" farce, "The Governor's Son," which is one of the brightest musical comedies on the American stage and one that is not void of plot and reason. Of comedies, in which the story serves as an entanglement of incidents and affairs "The Governor's Son" has them all distanced. The mixup is fast and furious and flows of laughter are showered on your system. The musical numbers are very bright and cheerful.

The first, and in fact, one of the greatest New York theatrical successes of last season is to be presented here at The Kentucky on Friday, November 6, by Alberta Gallatin, who supported by her own company will appear as Mrs. Alving in Henrik Ibsen's masterpiece, "Ghosts." Miss Gallatin is not only a charming and pretty woman but an accomplished actress with established ability. She has appeared in the support of such stars as Richard Mansfield, T. W. Keene, Mrs. Fiske, Henry Miller and Joseph Jefferson, and has also appeared as "Sappho" in the original Olaf Nethersole version of the play of that name. Her greatest success before she appeared as Mrs. Alving was Rosalind in "As You Like It," supporting Otis Skinner. The company surrounding Miss Gallatin in "Ghosts," has been selected with exceeding care as to the individual fitness of each member to the character portrayed, and included a number of well known players.
